

”Aspects of rehabilitation after Covid-19 in older people – a European perspective”

Date: 2021-02-03 | 11.45 am–13.30 pm

Zoom: <https://ki-se.zoom.us/j/64989239565>

KI's resource team for “Health of older people during Covid-19” invites you to a webinar where researchers from Belgium, Italy and Sweden will present follow-up data and other negative consequences on older peoples’ health due to the pandemic. Welcome!

Moderator: Elisabeth Rydwik, docent in physiotherapy, KI

11.45 Welcome and introduction

Maria Eriksdotter, professor, chair of resource group, KI

The European perspective

11.50 Functional recovery of moderate and severe COVID-19 survivors

Rik Grosselink, professor, PT, PhD, Faculty of Movement and Rehabilitation Sciences, KU Leuven university, Belgium

12.05 COVID-19 Pneumonia: Disability, Rehabilitation and aging
- An Italian experience

Mara Paneroni, PT, PhD-student, Pulmonary Rehabilitation Department, Maugeri IRCCS Clinical Scientific Institutes, Department of Neurosciences, Biomedicine and Movement sciences, University of Verona, Italy

12.20 ReCov: Rehabilitation after Covid-19 in Stockholm

Malin Nygren-Bonnier, docent in physiotherapy, KI

12.30 Discussion (co-moderator Kristina Johnell, KI)

Negative consequences of the pandemic

12.45 Rehabilitation in Swedish municipalities during covid-19
- Report from a survey study

Charlotte Chruzander, PhD, health policy strategist at the Swedish Association of Physiotherapists

12.55 COVID19 - Collateral damage on life and health of older adults in central Stockholm

Laura Fratiglioni, professor, KI

13.05 COVID-19 outbreak impact on brain health and prevention strategies: experiences from FINGER and World-Wide FINGERS

Miia Kivipelto, professor, KI

13.15 Discussion and summary (co-moderator Anne-Marie Boström, KI)

Karolinska
Institutet