

CHECKLIST: Course director at KI

- Establish communications with the company's/organization's contact.
- Make sure that the student and the company agree on what will be carried out and how – presented in the project description.
- Clarify what is included in the assignment; for example, what work and what results are reasonable to expect of the student.
- Establish a time-frame for the work and schedule presentations and invite the company's.