

Contraception will not affect your ability to become pregnant as soon as you stop using them (except for the injection).

Effective contraception allows you to plan when you want to become pregnant.